Proponents Present New Authorities in Effort to Change Law

Mapp Bill Provides Poll Tax Assessment and Registration After July 1, 1920 With View to Nov. Election

Richmond, Feb. 21.—Senator Mapp's bill, granting presidential suffrage to women has been declared unconstitutional by Assistant Attorney-General J. D. Hank, Jr.

Although various authorities and precedents were submitted to Mr. Hank, the Assistant Attorney-General after going into the question thoroughly, could find nothing, it is said, upon which to establish the constitutionality of the bill.

The measure is sponsored by Senator Mapp and others, who argued long and earnestly, but without avail for ratification of the Anthony amendment.

In an eleventh hour attempt to prove that the bill is constitutional, other "authorities and precendents" were submitted to the Assistant Attorney-General.

The bill not only grants the franchise, but provides for the assessment of capitation taxes and the qualification of women voters.

In the event the Assistant Attorney-General finds something on which to base the constitutionality of the Mapp bill, and it passes both branches of the General Assembly at this session, women would be entitled to vote for presidential and vicepresidential electors in the November election if they meet the requirements of the bill, which gives them the right to register after July 1, 1920.

To be eligible women must have paid the capitation taxes and must make application to register in their own handwriting without aid, suggestion or memorandum and must answer on oath any and all questions affecting their qualifications as an elector submitted by the registration officers.

Patrons of the bill have contended that it will not conflict with either the State or the Federal Constitution.

Senators Goolrick, Gunn and Leedy were appointed a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections to determine whether or not the Mapp bill, providing machinery for enabling women to vote in Virginia this fall in case the Federal suffrage amendment is ratified before the presidential election, as drawn conforms to the Constitution and existing laws.

Senator Mapp told the committee that he had been instructed by C. H. Morrissett, director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, who drew up the bill, that it met all conditions both of the Constitution and existing laws.

The Senator from Accomac was invited to sit in with the committee although not a member of the body and give it the benefit of his observations and views.

LENTEN LECTURES

A prominent feature of the Lenten services in Christ Episcopal Church this season will be a series of lectures on the four Gospels by Rev. Wallace E. Rollins, D. D., professor of Church history at the Episcopal Theological Seminary. These lectures will be given in church every Wednesday night at 7.30 o'clock.

The first lecture on "The Origin, Purpose and Characteristics of St Mark's Gospel," will be delivered next Wednesday night.

The public generally are invited to attend these lectures, which are free. No collection will be taken. The lectures while interesting to all who want to learn about the Bible will be found especially helpful to the Sunday School teachers in all of the churches and to the older scholars in the Sunday Schools.

Dr. Rollins suggests that as many as possible of those who attend these lectures read over the Gospel for the next lecture before attending and thereby they will be able to get more pleasure and benefit from the lectures.

CARTER GLASS FOR THE PRESIDENCY

Virginian's Name to be Presented at Democratic Convention

"IS A FAVORITE SON"

"A Standard-Bearer of Democracy on the Merits of His Record and Strength of Assomplishment"

Richmond, Feb. 21.—The name of Carter Glass will be presented before the Democratic State convention at Roanoke, May 19, for indorsement by Virginia for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States. This forecasts that the Virginia delegation will go to San Francisco instructed for the junior Senator, whose name will be presented not merely as "a favorite son" but as a standard-bearer of Democracy on the merits of his record and the strength of accomplishment.

Friends of Mr. Glass have been active in his behalf with the result that the movement is in full swing. Already assurances of support have been secured from many sections of the State. Men in Richmond declare there is no doubt that the Roanoke convention will instruct for Glass.

Recently a movement was started in Virginia in favor of Herbert Hoover, but no great progress is thought to have resulted from this activity. The Hoover "boom" was started at a time when it was understood that Mr. Glass was averse to having his name discussed in connection with the Presidency. Many who might have inclined toward the former food administrator will probably switch now to the support of the Virginia Senator.

Standing of the Teams

	W	L	Pct.
Dreadnoughts	6	2	.750
Virginia A. C.	4	4	.500
Lyceums	4	4	.500
Engineers	1	5	.167

Last night, before the biggest crowd of the season at the Armory, the Dreadnought Athletic Club basketball quint handed the Lyceums a 24 to 9 lacing, in one of the most spectacular contests of the season. The score does not show how hard fought a battle it was, but it does indicate the difference between the teams in last night's affair. From the opening blast of Referee Fitzgerald's whistle, the Dreadnoughts had the edge on Manager Wheatley's charges, and they maintained a safe lead throughout.

Al Roberts, injured leg and all, gave a wonderful exhibition of defensive basketball, the lanky guard of the Big D lads simply covering himself with glory. He was mainly responsible for the low score of the Maroon and White aggregation. Billy Crouch in center and Shorty Beeton in a forward position did great offensive work, the later being in nearly every play during the scrimmage.

The contest was one of the cleanest of the season, not a real mix-up occurring in the 4 0minutes of play. Rosy Hayden again played his usual snappy game, while Slim Hinken scored the only basket from the floor credited to the Lyceums.

Tonight, the Maryland Collegians play the Dreadnoughts at the Armory and another corking game should result, as the Collegians come here with a good record. Monday night, the Virginia's meet the Lyceums in a league contest.

A meeting of the Virginia Athletic Club will be held tonight at the Community Center, Prince and Royal Streets.

Cy MacDonald, manager of the Washington star of A. G. Spalding and Bros, was an Alexandria visitor last night, attending the Dreadnought-Lyceum game. Cy has presented the City League with a handsome silver trophy, which will be on display at the Downham and Ridgely store in the near future.

The Alexandria High School won a double victory over the Rockville High School teams at Rockville last night. The all around playing of the local team was too much for the Rockville tossers who were defeated by a score of 29 to 7. Goals from floor—Midkiff 5; Pettit, 3; Knight, 2; Dreifus 2; foul goals, Dreifus, 2; Midkiff 3.

The girls also played a snappy game and easily won the long end of the score. The final score was A. H. S., Girls 9; Rockville Girls 3. Features were the guarding of Misses Noonan and Craver.

BABY IN A BOILER

Newark, N. J., Feb. 21.—Jerome Vreeland, baby son of Mrs Anna Vreeland, of 182 Spruce street crowded enough excitement into his 17 months' life Wednesday to last him for years to come.

Jerome was playing in the kitchen of his home with his brother, Sidney 6 years old, and Sidney, having a jocular turn of mind, placed Jerome in an empty washboiler and placed the lid on. Jerome howled but Sidney could not remove the lid. Mrs. Vreeland made equally frantic but fruitless efforts to rescue her child. Finally the mother carried the boiler, baby inside, to a barber shop two blocks away, and found the barber as helpless as she. Along came Patrolman Spillner, a resourceful officer of the law, and he saved the infant.

The patrolman turned the boiler upside down, Jerome's weight pried the lid off, and Mrs. Vreeland fainted.

ATTACKED & ROBBED IN HIS OWN HOME

Frank Williamson of Franconia Stabbed and Robbed Early Today

BLOODHOUNDS USED

Negro Robber Stabs Williamson When Latter Attempts to Resist—Escapes With $200

A colored burglar at 3 o'clock this morning broke into the residence of Frank Williamson, forty years old, of Franconia, Fairfax county, 7 miles south of Alexandria, and after stabbing him four times with a big knife robbed his trunk of about $200 and then left his victim lying in the bed in an unconscious condition.

The same man previous to entering Williamson's home broke into the railway station at Franconia but did not succeed in getting any money Bloodhounds from Occoquan this morning were placed on the trail of the burglar by the Fairfax authorities and it is expected they will track the man.

Williamson says that he was aroused at 3 o'clock this morning when the burglar struck a match in his room. The intruder remarked to him to lay still. Williamson says that he started to get out of bed and the burglar shoved him back and a struggle ensued and Williamson struck the burglar three times whereupon the burglar pulled out the knife and stabbed him in the neck, shoulder, head and arms. As a result of the stabbing Williamson was rendered unconscious.

The burglar then searched his trousers and got about $1 in small change from the pockets and then opened the trunk at the foot of his bed and secured about $200, all of which was in paper with the exception of a small amount. Williamson says that this represented his life savings.

Williamson is a blacksmith and lives alone in the house. The burglar effected an entrance by forcing the window on the first floor leading to the kitchen and then made his way to Williamson's room on the second floor. Williamson stated that he had a shotgun in the house but it happened to be in the kitchen at the time.

Later in the day Williamson reported the robbery to the Fairfax authorities and then came to Alexandria where his wounds were treated by Dr. S. B. Moore after which he went to police station and made a report of the affair to Chief Goods.

A good description of the robber was given the police by Williamson and every effort is being made by the local police to apprehend the robber.

The belief of the police is that the burglar first broke into the railway station and being unable to secure any money next went to the home of Williamson.

Later in the day stains were found around the railway station and it is thought that the burglar cut his hands with glass entering the railway station. What money was in the station was in the big safe and the burglar was unable to open it.

Williamson furnished the police with a good description of the burglar and he thinks he would be able to identify him. The burglar is described as being about 35 years old, and ginger bread color and has a small mustache.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father and grandfather, Charles E. Wright, who departed this life, six months ago today, August 21, 1919.

Six months have passed since that sad day,
When the one I loved so dear was called away,
God took him home, it was His will,
But in my heart he liveth still.
Some may think you are forgotten,
And the wound long since been healed,
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies in my heart concealed.
Loved in life, remembered in death.
His devoted daughter and son-in-law
Mamie C. Cruff,

In the graveyard softly sleeping
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly,
In his silent, lonely grave.
His loving grandchild,

WASHINGTON'S FAITH

Tomorrow, February 22, will be the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, who passed away at Mount Vernon one hundred and twenty years ago, aged 67 years.

At each anniversary of the birth of the great Virginian his pictures are displayed in windows, especially in his native state, while prints appear in many periodicals.

One which has recently appeared in papers represents the illustrious chieftain in a secluded spot in a forrest, with naught save his horse. He is on his knees beseeching heaven to aid our forefathers in the war for Independence.

Books have been written on "George Washington as a Soldier," others on "Washington the Man and the Mason," some on "Washington as a Statesmen," etc., all of which we read with pleasure, but we never saw one entitled, "Washington, the Man of Faith." That he was a man of faith, however, is well-known.

Washington flourished at a time when the world was full of atheism, rationalism, etc. The scoffing of Frederick the Great had left its impression upon Germany, and the French Revolutionists had attempted to crowd the Creator out of the universe. French ideas had crossed the broad Atlantic and been eagerly swallowed by many Americans. Benjamin Franklin, Tom Paine and others of Revolutionary fame, did not believe in Revelation. Washington did, and during the seven years' war he never forgot to offer his thanks to Deity and to pray for victory for American arms.

We live in the day of Bolshevists, who like the French revolutionists, believed God should be expelled from the world. This is a prominent plank in the platform of these modern outlaws.

In our social gatherings on Monday in commemoration of the birth of George Washington let us not forget his faith as well as his patriotism.

THE POWER TO AMEND

In a statement published in the New York Times, Mr. Wayne B. Wheeler, chief counsel of the Anti-saloon League, asserts that "the power to amend the Constitution of the United States is unlimited except in two particulars, named in Article 5. On all other questions there is no limitation except as to the method prescribed in that article."

A writer in a Baltimore paper says, "If Mr. Wheeler's contention is upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States, it will be constitutionally possible for 180 members of Congress, 86 less than a majority of both houses, and less than 3,000 members of 36 State Legislatures, to do these things:

"Abolish a republican form government.

"Establish a heredity monarchy.

"Abolish the Supreme Court.

"Take away from the several States the right to levy taxes.

"Prohibit the exercise of the Christian religion.

Confiscate all money in the banks.

"Repudiate the national debt.

"All these revolutionary changes, destroying the American system of government, can be brought about by less than 3,000 men, in spite of the protest of all other citizens of the United States, and the Supreme Court will be powerless to hold that such amendments are void, even though, as is clearly the case with the Eighteenth Amendment, they are in direct conflict with the existing Constitution."

WINTER OF 1919-1920

The present severe winter is far advanced. But little over a week is left of February, and within a few days we will have entered blustry March.

While the Weather Bureau last night predicted snow or rain for this section, and the northeast wind and cloudy conditions this morning seemed to bring falling weather some Delawareans prefer to believe winter is over.

"Winter is over and it is going to be spring from now on," is the weather prophesy made by "Uncle Tom" Steele, of Georegtown, Del., who has no trailed in weather predictions for over forty years. He advises the farmers to begin plowing and to order their seeds and potatoes for early planting for it is to be an early spring with early crops. For many years his predictions have been followed by farmers in this section and they claim he never fails. His announcement will result in most farmers getting ready for their spring farm work, so confident are they that the weather will turn as he says. It will be a dry spring according to all signs, he declares. ?J lrhd mod mo om lim lim dom

CONSTIPATION

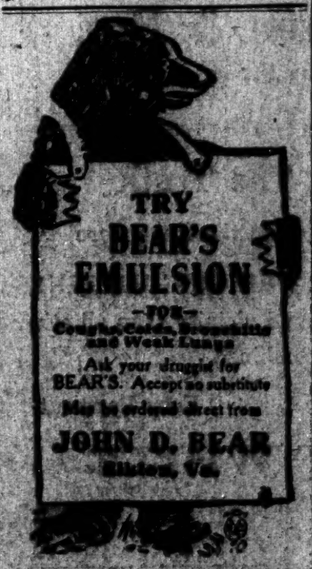
And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable, I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action leaving no bad after-efects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it. 1



VIRGINIA NEWS

A dispatch from Lemberg, Poland, says Captain Arthur D. Kelly, of Richmond, operations officer of the Kosciusko squadron, yesterday received notification that he had been awarded the war medal of the Aero Club of America for his services with the Ninety-sixth Aero Squadron of the American Army.

A Richmond drug firm will not receive $4,563 paid in revenue tax on confiscated liquor obtained from Prohibition Commissioner Sidney Peters, according to the ruling of Attorney General John R. Saunders The drug firm contends that when the Federal government refused to accept the money as revenue tax and returned it to the State prohibition department, the latter should have returned it to the firm.

On assurances from city officials of Norfolk and Portsmouth that an adequate supply of water would be provided for the naval operating base at Hampton Roads, which for several months has suffered from a water shortage, the House Naval Affairs subcommittee announced yesterday that it would recommend continuation of activities at the base Whether the subcommittee would recommend purchase of the east camp site on which six million dollars has been spent for improvements was not definitely determined The subcommittee has been investigating the water supply problem of Norfolk since Tuesday and concluded its inquiry yesterday.

Upon petition of L. A. McMurrain, receiver of the Colonial State Bank of Newport News, which closed its doors here last Thursday, the judge of the Corporation Court of Newport News yesterday afternoon entered a decree placing the Vassar Abbot Co., Inc., in the hands of receivers. The bill filed with the court alleges, that the liabilities owed by the Vassar Abbot Co., to the Colonial State Bank total $325,000, and that the failure of this company to meet obligations to the bank was the prime factor in the bank's insolvency.

By a vote of 28 to 11 late yesterday, the State senate voted to refer to the voters of the State the question of woman's suffrage by providing for a referendum on the question. This measure gained the support of many of those opposed to ratification of the Federal amendment, the opposition at that time being termed a usurpation of State rights by the national government. Buttonholing a political candidate or heckling him in any manner while he is campaigning in the State of Virginia will become a misdemeanor under the bill offered in the State Senate yesterday by Senator Cannon. It provides against any person exacting a political promise in lieu of support at the polls.

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Alexandria Reader

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical.

Alexandria residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

J. B. Mills, marine engineer, 212 S. Lee St., Alexandria, says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills off and on many years for backache and other kidney trouble. I have always had fine results. A few of Doan's regulate my kidneys and strengthen my back if it feels at all weak and lame. I get Doan's at the Warfield Drug Store."

Mr. Mills gave the above endorsement, on April 13, 1915 and on March 17, 1919 he added: 'Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly fine. If my kidneys get out of order it only takes a few of Doan's to fix me up."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney pills—the same that Mr. Mills had, Foster Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SMILING TO THE LAST

O'Brien Hanged in Chicago Yesterday for Murder of Policeman Burke

Chicago, Feb. 21.—"Handsome Jack" O'Brien retained his smile to the last yesterday, when he was hanged for the murder of Policeman Burke.

"Give my regards to Spot," O'Brien said as the noose was adjusted.

"Spot" Kelly, arrested with O'Brien, is in jail awaiting trial on the charge of being an accessory to the murder.

The hanging was held up an hour while awaiting arrival of the Cook County grand jury. The grand jury members desired to be on hand to see that the execution was carried out in accordance with the law.

Sheriff Charles Peters' plan to have other prisoners witness the hanging was declared to be illegal by State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne. All prisoners were removed from sight of the scaffold.

Burke was killed in a fight in a saloon.

Steamer Danube Makes Constantinople Partly Flooded After Disaster

Paris, Feb. 21.—The steamer Danube struck a mine in the Black Sea thirteen miles off Cape Ramili on the European shore at the entrance to the Bosphorus. Thirteen persons on board were killed by the explosion.

Two watertight compartments of the ship were flooded, but she succeeded in reaching Constantinople. The vessel is owned by the Messageries Maritimes of this city.

There's lots of wisdom in these [illegible] Dobbs' Dignity.

Clothes wisdom means clothing-thriftiness these days. Even if papa's from Pittsburgh he has cast a stern and forbidding eye in the direction of clothes extravagance. He is having his old suits cleaned and pressed, and found out that some of them didn't show a trace of wear. And he is asking mamma and daughter to fall in line and keep step.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Third Letter from Mr. W. G. Woodbury

I am very much pleased to be able to tell you that I am making very good progress throughout the different departments of the work at the factory. I have finished motor assembling and repairing with all important measurements that are essential in turning out a first-class overhaul job. In all my experience in different shops I have been taught to guess at the different clearances that are necessary, but the Ford Instructor has taught us to use the scale of measurement in all our work. In this way we are able to check up all our work correctly.

The transmission work was very interesting but not, until now have I ever had any one to explain the exact principle of its action. But I now have it quite clearly in my mind.

The coi lunit was also very interesting. The repairing of them was quite a novelty.

Sickness is very prevalent. Out of 150 students there were only 5 of us who attended classes every day, but am sorry to state that I am now confined to room with grippe.
